

84 LUMBER OUR MISSION AND VISION

FROM OUR HUMBLE SMALL-TOWN BEGINNINGS IN 1956, 84 LUMBER HAS GROWN TO BECOME THE NATION'S LARGEST PRIVATELY-HELD BUILDING MATERIALS SUPPLIER.

Our success is a testament to a customer-centric mission that is the foundation of the company.

First instilled by Founder and CEO Joe Hardy, today the spirit, mission, and vision of 84 Lumber are maintained by his daughter, Owner and President Maggie Hardy Magerko.

MISSION STATEMENT

84 Lumber exists for the purpose of:

- Serving our customers through a team of dedicated, honest, hardworking associates.
- Supplying our customers with the best quality products and services.
- Saving our customers time by offering competitive value-added pricing for each specific market.
- Creating an environment where nothing is impossible.

VISION

84 Lumber started in a small town, with common sense, American ideals, values, and service. Though we've grown through the years, our commitment to the local communities where we live, work, and operate our stores is the foundation of our success. Whether it's through superior customer service, investment in associates, work with charities, or involvement with business and trade groups, people know they can always count on 84. This vision has kept us strong for 60 years, and will continue to drive this company in the future.
