

84 LUMBER OUR MISSION, PURPOSE AND VISION

SINCE OUR HUMBLE SMALL-TOWN BEGINNINGS
IN 1956, 84 LUMBER HAS GROWN TO BECOME THE NATION'S LARGEST PRIVATELY HELD BUILDING
MATERIALS SUPPLIER.

Our success can be traced to an unwavering customer-centric focus. First instilled by founder Joe Hardy, 84 Lumber's mission, purpose and vision are now maintained by his daughter, current owner and President Maggie Hardy Magerko, and the company's roughly 5,500 associates.

MISSION STATEMENT

84 Lumber's goal is to continue enhancing our reputation as the nation's leading privately held building materials supplier. We're committed to providing the highest-quality offerings that help shape, build and maintain the American dream for professional builders and do-it-yourselfers.

PURPOSE

84 Lumber aims to serve our customers through a team of dedicated, hard-working and highly trained associates, providing top products and services that are competitively priced for each specific market.

VISION

With a keen sense of American values, ideals, and work ethic, 84 Lumber is committed to the local communities where we live and work. Whether it's exceptional customer service, collaboration with various charities, involvement with business and trade groups, or investment in associates, our priorities have kept us strong for more than 60 years and will continue to guide us in the decades ahead.
